Responsibility and powers of compliance of Act. 7. (1) The Government may, by order in writing, entrust upon every appointing authority or any officer under such authority, with the responsibility of ensuring the compliance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Government may, in the like manner, invest the appointing authority or officer referred to in sub-section (1), with such powers or authority as may be necessary for such authority or officer to effectively discharge such duty assigned to such authority or officer, under sub-section (1).

Penalty. 8. (1) Any appointing authority or officer or employee entrusted with the duty or responsibility under sub-section (1) of section 7 who willfully acts in a manner intended to contravene or defeat the purposes of this Act shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to ninety days or fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, or with both.

(2) No court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under this section except with the previous sanction of the Government or officer authorized in this behalf by the Government.

Powers to call for records. 9. When it comes to the notice of the Government or is brought to its notice, that, any person belonging to any of the categories specified in sub-section (2) of section 4 is adversely affected, on account of non-compliance with the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder or the Government orders in this behalf, by any appointing authority, it may call for such records and pass such appropriate order as deemed fit.

Representation in selection committee. 10. (1) The Government may, by order, provide for nomination of officers belonging to Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Classes in the selections, screening and departmental promotion committee for the purpose of selecting persons for appointment or promotions, as the case may be, to public services and posts.

(2) The Government may, by order, grant such concession in respect of fees for any competitive examination or such other similar examinations or interviews, and relaxation in upper age limit as it may be considered necessary in favour of the categories of persons specified in sub-section (2) of section 4.

(3) The Government orders in force on the date of the commencement of this Act, in respect of concessions and relaxation including concession in fees for any competitive examinations or such other similar examinations or interview and relaxation in the upper age limit shall continue to be applicable, unless modified or revoked, by Government.

Irregular appointments void. 11. Any appointments made, in contravention of the provisions of this Act shall be void.

Protection of action taken in good faith. 12. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any authority or person for anything done or purported to have been done in good faith in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

13. (1) The Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act. Power to make rules.

(2) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is made, before each House of the State Legislature, while it is in session for a total period of thirty days, which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, and notify their decision to that effect in the Official Gazette, the rule shall, from the date of publication of such decision in the Official Gazette, have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done or omitted to be done under that rule.

14. The provisions of this Act shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions contained in any other Act, for the time being in force. Provisions of this Act to be in addition to any other law for the time being in force.

15. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to cases in which selection process has already been initiated before the commencement of this Act, and such cases shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of law and Government orders as they stood before such commencement. Savings.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the selection process shall be deemed to have been initiated where, under the relevant service rules,—

(i) recruitment is to be made on the basis of written test or interview only, and such written test or the interview, as the case may be, has started, or

(ii) recruitment is to be made on the basis of both, the written test and interview and such written test has started.

16. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may, on occasion arises, by an order published in the Official Gazette, do anything not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty : Power to remove difficulties.

Provided that, no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is made, before each House of the State Legislature.
