Scholarship Committee Standard Operating Procedure (SOP)

To assurance an open and effective selection of scholarship recipients, a college's scholarship committee must create a Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) that outlines all of the procedures, roles, and responsibilities. This is a detailed SOP outline:

Committee composition:

- Coordinator: Appointed by the Principal.
- Faculty Members: Representatives from different departments.
- Administrative Staff: Responsible for record-keeping and communication

Coordinator:

- In charge of all committee operations.
- Call meetings and serve as their leader.
- Verify that the SOP was followed.

Faculty members:

- Examine applications for scholarships.
- Take part in the process of making decisions.

Administrative staff:

- Manage the receipt and filing of applications.
- Notify applicants of decisions.
- Preserve minutes of meetings and choices.

Objective: A scholarship's main purposes are to support deserving students financially so they can pursue their educational and professional aspirations and to advance diversity and inclusion, career advancement, and constructive social change.

- Students who meet the government requirements for the award must apply in order to be eligible for it.
- Every registered student must be informed about all government scholarships and free ships.
- During a full induction program session, newly enrolled students will be introduced to several state and federal grants, including free scholarships.

- A single student is allowed to apply for a single scholarship.
- Students will receive office support to complete online scholarship applications and get answers to any questions they may have.
- Students enrolled in a three-year degree program, after first year application form has been renewed.
- Students who drop out are not eligible to seek or collect the scholarship.
- An office worker is in charge of carefully reviewing the form, checking the documentation, and sending it to the relevant government unit for approval.
- A nodal person would be designated among the teachers to oversee the entire procedure and guarantee that all qualified kids receive benefits.

Application Process:

- Publicize scholarship opportunities through class notice and notice boards.
- Clearly define and list eligibility criteria for each scholarship.
- Accept applications via an online portal or designated office.
- Provide a checklist of required documents.
- Notify all applicants of their status (accepted, waitlisted, or rejected).
- Provide feedback to unsuccessful candidates if request any.
- Government have its own mechanism to accept the palms and sanction the said scholarship.
- In the 3 years degree program a fixed amount as per the government tell policy are sanctioned every year.
- Amount sanction is transferred directly to the applicant account by the concern government sale.
- The total amount section for student for year is disburse into two parts to the applicant account directly.
